

DO YOU KNOW A TEEN THAT...

Wants leadership experience?

Needs volunteer hours for college applications?

Is a creative thinker?

Wants to be a part of a team?

If you answered YES check this out:

Colorado National Guard Youth Advisory Council!

What:

- Develop young leaders
- Act as advisory council to State Youth Coordinators
- Enhance goals and objectives of Youth Program
- Promote communication, involvement, support and recognition among CONG members and youth

Criteria:

- Ages 13-18
- Have a parent/s serving in the Colorado National Guard (Army or Air)
- Complete and submit the YAC application

Benefits of Joining the YAC:

- Earn volunteer hours for college applications
- Gain leadership experience
- Network with other teen leadership clubs
- Special invites to YAC only events
- Build self-esteem and strength of character

Commitment:

- Hold position for a year
- Agree to actively participate in quarterly council meetings, service projects, and events
- Maintain contact with other council members

Send completed application to Kymberly.wheeler@gmail.com

If you are chosen by the review committee to be a member of the YAC, you will be contacted and provided information for the first meeting.

Any questions please call 720-250-1412